

Speaker Bios

Andrew Haddad Andrew Haddad is a seasoned executive with extensive experience in strategic planning and performance management. As a key leader in our organization, Andrew is dedicated to driving success through data-driven decision-making and innovative strategies.

Rik Owens-McLean Rik Owens-McLean is a technology evangelist at Microsoft with a passion for helping organizations leverage the latest technological advancements. With a wealth of experience in digital transformation, Rik is committed to empowering teams to achieve their full potential.

Mukaddim Mukaddim is a dynamic facilitator known for his expertise in leading unconference sessions. With a background in collaborative problem-solving and innovation, Mukaddim excels at creating engaging and productive environments for participants to share ideas and solutions.

Paul Taylor Paul Taylor is a renowned health and wellbeing expert with a focus on workplace wellness. With a background in psychology and fitness, Paul provides practical advice and strategies to help individuals and organizations thrive by prioritizing health and wellbeing.